PIER Journals Revision Request: 21040707. External Inbox X

Dear Dr. Nurhayati Nurhayati:

Your article
Key: 21040707
Title: A COMPARATIVE STUDY OF SOME NOVEL WIDEBAND TULIP FLOWER MONOPOLE ANTENNAS WITH MODIFIED PATCH AND GROUND PLANE
may be accepted for publication when we receive your revised version. However, this is not an acceptance notice, the paper may still be rejected. A final decision of acceptance or rejection will be made after receiving and evaluating your revised version together with additional new review inputs.

Please go to http://www.pier.org/inter/on_line/login.php?userid=rtWapUbl3kOnT11ookhMGM8ARQAm04Hm8RzuM25yd2%3D%3D take into account Reviewers' comments and suggestions, and fill in the checklist form in the "To Do" list.

To expedite the process, the following files are required in this revision stage:

- 1) The point-by-point answers to the reviewer comments in a separate file.
- 2) A revised version with clear revision marks.
Please kindly mark revisions in different color or indicate the page and line numbers where the revisions should be made. Revision marks will expedite the checking process by the editors or reviewers.
- 3) Please DO upload the source files (TEX with EPS or PDF figures, or DOCX files) of the whole revised article to expedite the typeset process.

Usually, you are required to submit the revised version within 3-7 days. However, we hope you can have reasonable time to improve the manuscript better. If you need more time, we suggest you inform us in advance. Or, if we do not receive your response within 1 month, your paper may be withdrawn from our file.

Page Limit and Overlength Page Charge:

As all articles in all PIER Journals are available online and free of charge to all readers, PIER authors are required to pay the publication fee (if any according to the calculation below).

The total publication fee is the sum of the paper charge and the overlength page charge.

The paper charge is USD 300 for each paper in PIER. There is NO paper charge for PIER B, C, M and Letters. The page limit is 6 pages for PIER Letters, 10 pages for PIER M, 16 pages for PIER and PIER C, and 24 pages for PIER B. The overlength page charge is USD 100 for each journal page in excess of the page limit. Authors are strongly advised to pay attention to the page limits before submitting the manuscript.

Authors are strongly suggested to pay attention to the page limit before submitting and revising the manuscript. Please kindly note that any revision of reducing contents in the next Final Proofread stage will not be acceptable, once you receive the final acceptance notice.
