Editor-in-Chief

Dear Dr. Kei Eguchi,

I am pleased to submit an original research article entitled "Dual Watermarking Schemes for Image Authentication and Copyright Protection with Recovery Capability" by Lusia Rakhmawati, Suwadi, and Wirawan for consideration for publication in the International Journal of Intelligent Engineering and Systems.

In this manuscript, we show that the algorithm we proposed is simple and easy to implement. Experimental results demonstrate a dual watermarking scheme provide simultaneously all the three functionalities of copyright protection, tamper detection with recovery capability. We believe that this manuscript is appropriate for publication by the International Journal of Intelligent Engineering and Systems because it in accordance with the scope of the journal.

This manuscript has not been published and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. We have no conflicts of interest to disclose.

Please address all correspondence concerning this manuscript to me at a lusiarakhmawati.17071@mhs.its.ac.id or lusiarakhmawati@unesa.ac.id.

Thank you for your consideration of this manuscript.

On behalf of all authors,

Sincerely,

Comments from reviewers 1 & 2:

1. The meaning of the research title is too broad. You should improve the title. The dual watermarking scheme has already been proposed by many researchers.
2. In the abstract part, the novelty and key idea of the proposed method should be described. What's the difference with existing dual watermarking schemes? The authors must explain it clearly.
3. In abstract, the result of this work must be described briefly with data. The result of this work is not clear. The authors explained that "Experimental results show the efficiency of proposed method compared to previous techniques in general." What does "previous techniques in general" stand for?
4. Don't use acronym without explanation. All acronyms must be defined before use.
5. In sentences equations, mathematical expressions must be italic font. Unify the font style.
6. There is no XY-axis label in Figs. 2 (a) and (b).
7. Distinguish mathematical expression from programming code. Eqs. (4) and (4) are wrong.
8. Place Figs. 1 and 2 properly.
9. In Eq. (12), explain the meaning of the operation "⊗".
10. In Sect. 4, the authors explained that "The following section emphasizes higher performance in comparison to the associated dual-watermarking mechanisms [8], [23], and [25] of the dual watermark method proposed." However, the authors compared the proposed technique with [6, 23, 27] in Table 4.
11. In figures, letters are too small. Unify the font size of letters (more than 10pt). Enlarge or Redraw figures 7 and 8.
12. Unify the font size of tables to 10pt.
13. The results of this research are not clear in Conclusions. Show the scientific contribution of this work with concrete data.
14. The font size of references must be set to 11pt.

Dear IJIES Editors,

Thank you for accepting our paper for publication in IJIES.

It is true that our reference font size is 8 pt, and if it changes to 11 pt becomes 14 pages.
Thus we have to pay 1 more page or followed the invoice?

and

Is it possible if I change the corresponding author in the paper and copyright form become another author, i.e Dr. Suwadi?

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Lusia Rakhmawati
