Comments to Author::

The work is on the droplet size and evaporation process in the cooling tower operation. The work provides some good results with formulations. I have some comments that are mentioned as below:

1. Please arrange the title accordingly
2. Mention the properties of water used
3. Describe the experimental setup or provide the ref. where it is explained
4. page.5 ref. Gibbs and Thomson [1] is not in the ref. list. Similarly, there is a discrepancy in the ref. citation as on page 5. line 123. Remove such inconsistency in the entire document
5. page.8 line 182, there is no ref. for Chapter 2.1
6. English writing should be improved throughout the document

The above comments may be considered before fulfilment of the final publication.

Dear JETS Editor,

We did the first revision (# 13398) of our manuscript on July 12th and entered into the second revision on July 14th. Yesterday, we opened the login page in JETS ITB and found another manuscript (# 13716) that has been in the editing process even though it has never been revised before.

Is it true that our manuscript # 13716 is in the process of editing and we have to pay APC? How does the second revision process # 13398 continue?

Best regards,
Authors
