Reviewer- A

Decision: Major revisions required

The study "A criminal perspective of the COVID-19 Pandemic's impact on the Distribution of Halal Food" assessed the association between raw material unavailability , supply chain inefficiencies , wholesaler performance , retailer performance , distributor performance , and halal food distribution through a questionnaire survey . Although the authors used good material and arguments to build their case , however, overall there are a few things that need step-wise improvement to make this work publishable.

- In the introduction of the paper , the authors should briefly present why Halal food is an absolute necessity for Muslim societies . The statement "In some areas of Indonesia , the materials necessary to create halal food is lacking , disrupting" needs more justification and explanation . Also, the authors should explain in detail how and why, during the pandemic, Halal food distribution is a significant challenge for businesses.
- Throughout the literature review section, the authors used similar research results to the existing research without logical arguments. That weakens the arguments, and the current arguments are not persuasive enough to convince the readers that this paper has contributions. So please rewrite this section. Also, add subheadings like Unavailability of Raw Food Resources, etc.,

- The problem statement is well-written and explained by the authors. The framework of the study should also be added for a clear understanding of the readers.
- The findings are very brief and need to be more detailed, clearly articulating ideas and extracting information. Authors should include a separate table for Confirmatory Factor Analysis (CFA) Results and Indirect Effect Results.
- The discussion and conclusion section is also presented well. However, there is still room for improvement. There is a need to explain the Implications of the Study in detail.
- Although the article is well-written and easy to read, it has some grammatical errors that must be carefully checked and corrected.
- Authors should add DOIs for all the references as per journal requirements.

Reviewer -B

Decision: Major revisions required

- i. The introduction of the topic is very brief. A detailed introduction is required to better understand the research gap and research problem. Also, the authors should present in detail the significance of Halal food in Muslim communities.
- ii. The literature review needs to be much more clearly written. The ideas are there, but they need to be explained further, and the ideas need to be more clearly linked together. An in-depth literature review is required to build the arguments with a clear understanding of the main concepts.
- iii. I encourage the authors to share some more details regarding the study context in the problem statement. Also, it is more good to explain the argument in light of tables and figures.
- iv. The discussion section is merged with the conclusion part. There is a need to discuss the study results in detail independent of the conclusion, clearly stating the significance of the results and their applicability as per the study context. A separate implication section must be added at the end.
- v. There are many grammatical issues in the article throughout, and the authors are especially confused about where to use and where not to use “articles” and commas, etc.

		Thanks a lot, dear reviewer, for allowing me to revise the manuscript. I am very grateful for all the good and valuable comments. These helped us a lot to improve our work.
1.	The introduction of the topic is very brief. A detailed introduction is required to better understand the research gap and research problem. Also, the authors should present in detail the significance of Halal food in Muslim communities.	Dear reviewer, I have revised the introduction to make it influential. Following your kind guidelines, I have presented in detail the significance of Halal food in Muslim communities. Please see pages 2-4
2.	The literature review needs to be much more clearly written. The ideas are there, but they need to be explained further, and the ideas need to be more clearly linked together. An in-depth literature review is required to build the arguments with a clear understanding of the main concepts.	Dear reviewer, following your kind guidelines, I have thoroughly revised the literature review. Please see pages 4-7
3	I encourage the authors to share some more details regarding the study context in the problem statement. Also, it is better to explain the argument in light of tables and figures.	Dear reviewer, following your kind guidelines, I have added details regarding the study context in the problem statement. Also, explained the argument in light of tables and figures. Please see pages 6-15
4	The discussion section is merged with the conclusion part. There is a need to discuss the study results in detail independent of the conclusion, clearly stating the significance of the results and their applicability as per the study context. A separate implication section must be added at the end.	Dear reviewer, many thanks for your kind guidelines. I have revised the discussion and conclusion section at the end of the manuscript. I also added a separate implication. Please see page 16

5	There are many grammatical issues in the article throughout, and the authors are especially confused about where to use and where not to use "articles" and commas, singular or plural, etc.	Dear reviewer, I am grateful for your observations and for helping us enhance our manuscript's quality with your kind suggestions, comments, and guidelines. Following your kind guidelines, I have now proof-edited our paper with the help of professional native English speakers to enhance its quality and readability
