Title:

Implementation of Corporate Governance Self Assessment in Improving the Liquidity of East Java Regional Development Banks

Authors:

Eni Wuryani

Institutions:

Accounting Department, faculty of Economics
Universitas Negeri Surabaya

Content:

This research analyzes the implementation of corporate governance in increasing liquidity. Corporate governance is measured from the assessment of self assessment conducted by the East Java Development Bank. Implementation of corporate governance based on SEOJK No.32 / SEOJK.04 / 2015, regarding open corporate governance. There are 8 principles of corporate governance implementation. Liquidity is measured by Loan Deposit Ratio, Current Ratio, Cash Ratio, and Quick Ratio. This study uses descriptive analysis. The data used in the financial statements and application of corporate governance in 2017. The results showed that the implementation of corporate governance based on self assessment had good criteria. The level of liquidity shows liquid results. This shows that good corporate governance implementation will increase the level of liquidity.
