Dear Prof/Dr/Mr/Ms/Mrs
Mrs Wiyli Yustanti:

We have now completed the review of your submission "Latent Variable Reconstruction in Determining Student's Single Tuition Fee Category with Confirmatory Factor Analysis Approach." Thank you for submitting your paper to ICACCSIS.

Unfortunately, your submission has not been accepted for presentation in ICACCSIS. We had a good quality of submitted papers this year and the selection process was competitive. Each paper was reviewed by at least 2 reviewers and approximately only 50 % of submissions that were accepted.

Please keep in mind that this decision is final and not negotiable.

The conference has a interesting programs, Please see the website http://icacsis.cs.ui.ac.id/front/?page_id=954 for full details.

6. Overall Rating: Do you recommend acceptance or rejection? :

III. Comment About the Paper:

This paper aims to reconstruct latent variable of student's single tuition fee using Confirmatory Factor Analysis (CFA). Below are my comments:
1. In my opinion, the topic of this paper is not relevant to computer science/information systems. If the authors aim to contribute to DSS field, the authors should emphasize their work on the decision modeling, not to the selection of the variables. In current form, the contribution of this paper is more on social science field rather than information systems field.

2. The motivation of this research is not clear. What gap(s) in the theory that the authors want to address, in addition to practical gap. Given that there are many researchers working on this topic, what is the main contribution of this research that makes it so special i.e having impact on the science advancement?
3. In order to justify your contribution (as my comment in point 2), it is necessary to discuss states of the art related to this topic. The introduction section lacks of the discussion of states of the art.
4. The previous researches should be presented better. It is not clear what are the aims of presenting the works of other authors. Are you aiming at synthesizing the attributes from those researches or else?
4. The Confirmatory Factor Analysis (CFA) can be removed from this paper. The CFA is a common tool, where everybody agree the concept about it. Thus, you just need to mention it in your methodology section.
5. The methodology section is missing. In fact, it is the most essential part that should be presented in this paper to ensure the soundness of this research. Please add the methodology section that includes the following information: instrument/material, data collection process, data analysis method/tool (which in your case is CFA).
6. The discussion section is also missing. In this paper, you just presented the result of your research, but not discussing the essential issue that you obtain from this research. In this section, you should discuss your research results and their relevance to the findings from other researchers.
7. What are the implications of this study, both to the theories and practices? Please add this topic in the discussion section.
8. Please add the limitation and future research directions in the Conclusion section.
9. Overall, the author must learn to choose the most important part that should be presented in an academic paper.

Reviewer B:

 4. Presentation: How would you rate the presentation (readability and organization) of this paper? :
Adequate
 5. Literature: Does the paper give complete literature review? :
Good
 6. Overall Rating: Do you recommend acceptance or rejection? :
Revision Required

III. Comment About the Paper:

This paper applies the confirmatory factor analysis approach on student data to define the classification of tuition fee in a public university. Most of the text are taken from literature, only small parts are taken from the process of applying the methodology. More discussion and lesson learnt are required to make this paper is worth shared in the conference.

III. Comment About the Paper:

The aims of the paper is to determine student's single tuition fee category with Confirmatory Factor Analysis approach.

The paper has several issues:

1. It lacks of literature review and references
2. The rationale of the study and methodology are not clear
3. There is no discussion related to the findings
4. The paper is quite hard to follow (proofread the article)
