We hereby submit a manuscript entitled, "Determinant of the Exchange Rate with Hybrid Model: Empirical Evidence from Indonesia" to be considered for publication as a research article in Journal of Applied Economic Sciences.

The purpose of this study is to analyze the determinants of the exchange rate using hybrid models in Indonesia. The hybrid model is a blend of the macroeconomic model with microstructure model. We believe these results will be of interest to the readers of your journal.

We declare that this manuscript is original, has not been published before and is not currently being considered for publication elsewhere. We also declare that there is no competing financial interest.

The manuscript has been read and approved by all named authors.

We hope you find our manuscript suitable for publication and look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Tony SENOAJI
Doctoral Program in Economics, Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Brawijaya, Indonesia
