Dear Dr Wiyono

During the editorial work, we discovered that the original title of your submitted paper had a title which we believed was inappropriate.

Based on the statement concerning the editorial right to make corrections and some editorial changes, we come up with a simple, shorter and much appealing title:

Optimising vocational school development for priority industry sectors in Indonesia using location quotient analysis,

On 26 January, I supplied you with a PDF file of your article (WT01-Wiyono-A-XX-pdf) with the above title, which you approved. Your suggestion was to change the affiliation of the authors to the name in the Indonesian language that would be against the rules of the journal, which require the use of the English language throughout the paper. You accepted our decision in your e-mail message of 27 January 2023 by writing: I am followed the guidelines set by the Journal, thank you for the information.

Now, for no reason you are filling in the Submission-Declaration form, which objective is to clarify your approval of the final version of that paper WT01-Wiyono-pdf, which is with exact content of the WT01-Wiyono-A-XX-pdf file, approved by you earlier, with the paper title, which was in the original submission and was judged by us as inappropriate.

I wish to advise you that I have found your behaviour absolutely unacceptable! Should you further cause unnecessary problems with the matter, not put the final title of the approved paper, and do not send the Submission-declaration form with the approved final title, I will not publish your paper. Please note that we have done the job and the paper is ready for publication. Hence, we will keep the publication funds. Should there be any further problem caused by this unfortunate behaviour, I will have no option as to refer this case to the Rector of the State University of Surabaya to seek his/her resolution of the matter.

Kindest regards

Zenon J. Pudlowski

Dear Dr Wiyono

I am sorry, but you have to accept the final version of your article as per the attached PDF file, this version was sent to you for the final approval. The title has been change and it is now:

Optimising vocational school development for priority industry sectors in Indonesia using location quotient analysis, by Agus Wiyono & Subuh I. Haryudo, State University of Surabaya, Surabaya, Indonesia

The above title, author and affiliation has to be put to this Submission-Declaration form. You have to fill in this very form (attached here), sign it, and send it back to me. We cannot accept any self-created form.

Kindest regards

Dear Dr Wiyono

Because your paper required a lot of interventions both editorial and academic, in order to include it in the Journal we require the author to sign a Submission/Declaration form confirming that the final version of the article is exactly what the author wanted and approved.

Attached, please find this form for you to fill in, sign and send to me by Saturday

Dear Dr Wiyono

We are publishing our journals in the English language and for the English readers. Hence, we tend not to use foreign languages. The translation of your university name is not unique as it applies to all the no-English countries (I suggest that you check it in the journals!). This was clearly stated in the materials included in the kit for authors. So there will be no change of the university name.
