III. Comment About the Manuscript:

1. There are several misspelled words that need to be corrected, for example: "abilitys". The use of check spelling and grammar in MS Word or other applications may be needed.
 2. Self-efficacy should be in the abstract.
 3. Self-ability 'aspects appear in the abstract but do not appear in the background. Which will be discussed further, self-efficacy or self-ability 'aspects? Do these two terms mean the same thing? Or self-ability 'aspect is part of self-efficacy? If the same (or not the same), show the underlying statement in the background.
 4. Why is student readiness not associated with readiness in the field of technology? How is their mastery in the field of technology? Isn't it said in the background that technology can be a challenge and opportunity and even a threat because it is disruptive?
 5. If the foreign language ability of students is still low, can it be concluded that the graduate students are ready to face the industrial revolution 4.0? This needs to be added in the discussion.
 6. What are the limitations of this study so that it can be refined in future research?
